

Polaron
Language Services

Certified translation service

Integrated language solutions.

LEGAL TRANSLATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Whether you need to translate a will, a tender document, a contract or you need language assistance with court proceedings or legal conference, our NAATI accredited interpreters and translators are available in over 100 languages and dialects and are authorised to work within any Australian government agency or court.

CERTIFICATIONS

If you have documents that need to be officially recognised by a government agency in Australia or abroad, choose Polaron as your partner for:

- Affidavits
- Apostilles
- Authentications
- Consular certifications
- Notarisations
- International legalisations
- Recognition by foreign authorities

We can map out and perform all the legalisation steps required for your documents to be recognised by any relevant authority anywhere in the world.

Did you know that we also offer multilingual litigation support?

Our language professionals are experts in legal terminology, both in English and in the target language, and are familiar with both legal systems.

It's your organisation's reputation and your clients' business success at stake!

A simple variation can make a substantial difference to outcomes in the legal sector.

48-HOUR TRANSLATION SERVICE

If the document that you need to translate is included in the list of standard documents, and the language is included in the list of fast-tracked languages, we guarantee you a 48-hour service, at no additional cost.
